

Postgraduate Funding 2014-15 Spanish, Portuguese and Latin American Studies

The Department of Spanish, Portuguese and Latin American Studies, one of the largest concentrations of expertise in Hispanic, Lusophone and Latin American studies in the UK, is pleased to announce a number of Postgraduate funding opportunities for the coming academic year:

London Arts and Humanities Partnership Doctoral Training awards.

- Up to 80 studentships are available for postgraduate research students studying Arts & Humanities at King's College London, School of Advanced Study (University of London) or University College London. Deadline for applications 31st January 2014. To apply go to: www.lahp.ac.uk

Marjorie von Schlippenbach MA and Doctoral bursaries.

- Thanks to a generous bequest the Department will also award financial support to students enrolled on our taught MA and PhD programmes (up to £5000 for three years for PhD students and for one year for MA students)

Santander MA awards.

- £5000 for students from eligible countries

For information about Von Schlippenbach and Santander bursaries, please contact Dr Elisa Sampson Vera Tudela elisa.sampsonvt@kcl.ac.uk

The Graduate School will shortly be announcing additional support for MA students: please see <http://www.kcl.ac.uk/study/pg/school/funding.aspx>

For the Department's research expertise and taught Masters programme see <http://www.kcl.ac.uk/artshums/depts/splas/index.aspx>